The intent behind Take-

Along-Arturo is for some summer fun. Please don't sacrifice your safety (in posing for pictures or posting any private information, such as your street address,) online. The activity is purely opt-in, so if it's not your thing, that's okay. We all have our niche, but please respect those who choose to participate.

If you come across any inappropriate use, please report it on Instagram. Failure to comply with these guidelines will result in loss of privilege for all.

Directions for creating your very own Take-Along-Arturo

Inspired by Disney's Take-Along-Olaf (click for visual example)

Materials Needed:

-  Paper or cardstock
-  Printer (preferably color)
-  Scissors
-  Popsicle stick, ruler, paint stirrer, or straw (recommended)
-  Tape or glue

Step 1 - Print out page one for Arturo's image. If you print all the pages, it's recommended you print it single-sided, so once cut-out the text won't come shining through on your image. Pro tip: If printed single-sided you can also handwrite #travelingarturo on the back, of your Take-Along-Arturo, so you don't have to look it up later.

Step 2 - Cut out Arturo's image. It's perfectly fine to leave some white edges all the way around the cut out. Refer to the Take-Along-Olaf visual example (above) as a reference for 'white edges' and as an example for the next step. It provides a front and back view you may find helpful.

Step 3 - Attach your popsicle stick, ruler, paint stirrer, or straw to the back of your Take-Along-Arturo as a handle/support using glue or tape. The materials you have on hand will determine the best method to attach the handle. If you are missing these supplies, you can still use your Take-Along-Arturo. Just hold him or prop him up for photoshoots.

Step 4 - Get creative, snap fun photos, and with your parent or guardian's permission share your creations on Instagram with #travelingarturo and follow his summer fun @arturoclassmascot
